

Susan B. Geiger, Partner, K&L Gates

Susan B. Geiger is a partner whose practice focuses on regulation and legislation. She counsels a wide range of clients on legislative and regulatory issues, compliance matters and strategies. She represents companies, associations, and companies on matters relating to the maritime industry, the environment, and biodefense issues. She represents clients in legislative, administrative, corporate, and enforcement matters. She counsels clients on compliance with federal and state laws and regulations and conducts internal audits and investigations.

Recent representations have included: representing a group of maritime associations in commenting on and challenging the Vessel General Permit requirements, defending the exporter of fish to the United States against allegations of civil and criminal violations of U.S. import regulations, designing and conducting an environmental seminar for vessel and shoreside personnel, and counseling a large bulk transportation operator on compliance with laws relating to the coastwise trade.

Before joining K&L Gates, Ms. Geiger was a senior staff member at the U.S. Office of Management and Budget (OMB) handling regulatory matters. She was the senior OMB staff person responsible for implementing a presidential program to improve government regulations.
